Esperance goes again

SOLID Easter rains appear to have given the Esperance region a second consecutive early start to the season.

Primaries' Esperance representative Alan Powell said on Tuesday, there had been reports of an inch or more over most of Esperance, up through Ravensthorpe to Jerramungup.

"The rains have been excellent and already they have re-sparked some of the green from those summer rains," he said.

"There have been thousands of sheep go to the east from this region, but trading has been on hold because of the drier recent conditions.

"This rain will enable croppers to clear the decks, and those who want to add to their sheep numbers to do so."
