STAN DIES SUDDENLY

One of Primaries' best liked and known 'stockies', Stan Zuglian died suddenly at his home in Esperance early this week.

Primaries managing director Trevor Pedler said Stan had endeared himself to both clients and fellow staff since he joined the company at Esperance in 1999.

"He was a marketing specialist with both sheep and cattle, but shared a passion for good cattle," Trevor said.

"Everyone at Primaries passes on their condolences to Stan's family members and mourns the passing of a great friend and colleague."

WATCH FOR THESE LAMBS

Primaries' representative at Narrogin, Brian Barnsby has advised that the final draft of 1500 Vinrose Merino blood lambs from the East Hyden property of L. & V.M. Radford will be offered by Primaries during the Katanning sheep sale on Wednesday, November 7.

This will conclude the sale of stock from the well-known Radford family, following the sale of their property and clearing sale.

Brian said the lambs would be drafted into sale lines to suit the market.
